

SUMMERTIME (La belle saison) rocks #SBIFF The Wave Film Festival ~ France

Description

Summertime, the latest work from writer/director Catherine Corsini, delivered a wallop yesterday evening at the Santa Barbara Riviera Theater during the second day of the Santa Barbara International Film Festivalâ??s (SBIFF) The Wave ~ France. Using exquisite lighting and the abundant beauty of her actors, Corsini unveils a highly stylized period piece capturing a mood and the sensitivities of life for young French women.

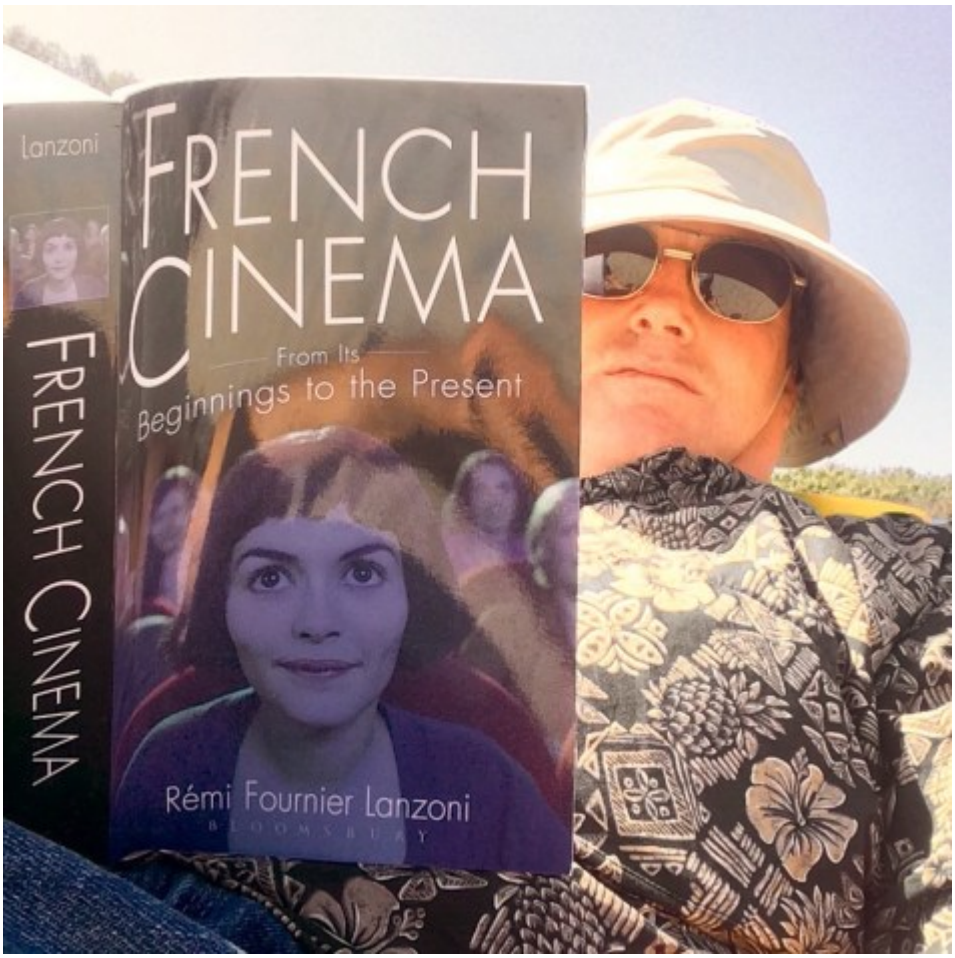
In its most elemental form, Summertime, tells the story of two young women who, in 1971, meet in Paris by happenchance during the height of the times feminist activities and wind up falling passionately in love. The film received multiple nominations for Cesar and Lumiere awards in categories of Best Actor, Best Supporting Actor, Best Screenplay and Best Director while garnering Lumiere Award for Best Music with the work from Gregoire Hetzel.

Summertime screens again on Sunday, July 17th, at the Riviera Theater, 2044 Alameda Padre Serra, in Santa Barbara, Calif.

Todayâ??s featured films include The Great Game, at 2:00PM, Being 17, at 5:00PM and Fannyâ??s Journey at 7:30PM.

Tickets and passes are available at the box office. Prices range from $8 â?? $10 for single admission and $80 â?? $250 for festival passes. For more information on passes and scheduling click here.

See you at the movies!



Category

1. #TheWave

Tags

1. #SBIFF
2. Actor
3. Awards
4. Cinema
5. Director
6. Festival
7. Film

8. French Cinema
9. Producer
10. Program
11. Riviera Theatre

Date Created
July 13, 2016
Author
hollywoodglee