Dorothy Dandridge, Ida Lupino and Anna May Wong Honored at AFI FEST 2016

Description

In celebration of the 30th edition of AFI FEST presented by Audi, a trio of diverse female trailblazers will adorn the festivalâ??s 2016 key art and be featured in its programming lineup. AFI FEST will spotlight Dorothy Dandridge, the first African American nominated for a Best Actress Academy AwardÂ®; Ida Lupino, a pioneering director, writer, producer and actress who became the first woman to direct a film noir; and Anna May Wong, the first Chinese-American actress to rise to international prominence.

AFI FEST will screen three films featuring each artist in its expanded Cinemaâ??s Legacy section that celebrates motion picture heritage and presents recent restorations of film classics and films about the history of cinema: Otto Premingerâ??s CARMEN JONES (1954) starring Dandridge; the Lupino-directed THE HITCH-HIKER (1953); and E.A. Dupontâ??s PICCADILLY (1929) starring Wong.
