Film Capsule: FRAUD (Fleischer-Camp, 2016): USA

Description

Reviewed by Larry Gleeson. Viewed during AFIFEST 2016 presented by Audi.

Fraud, the new fifty-two minute documentary from director, editor New York Timesâ?? childrenâ??s book author, Dean Fleischer-Camp, tells the story of one American familyâ??s economic struggles. Culled from over a hundred hours of uninhibited, raw footage, Fleischer-Camp pieces together an obsessed manâ??s YouTube home movies shot during a period from 2008 to 2015 â?? an intimate, yet disturbing, portrait emerges as the worlds of reality and fiction are merged by Fleischer-Camp to create an apocalyptic, futuristic narrative. Highly Recommended.
