The second segment will run from Wednesday, July 13th through Sunday, July 17th, and will highlight new French films. Each Wave Festival will take place at the historic Riviera Theatre.

â??With increasingly diverse lineups each year, The Wave has become a pivotal tradition of SBIFF,â?• stated Mickey Duzdevich, director of the Wave Film Festival. â??The Pan-Asian and French film canons are filled with countless classics, and we have no doubt that this yearâ??s lineup will continue to dazzle and inspire audiences.â?•

In addition, we have announced Wednesday, February 1st through Saturday, February 11th as the dates for the 32nd annual festival.

In addition to screening numerous films over the years, including countless US and World Premieres, SBIFF is known for programs such as the prestigious Tribute honor which counts Michael Keaton, Rachel McAdams, Alicia Vikander, Alejandro G. Iñárritu and Sylvester Stallone among recipients, and the acclaimed Panel Series, where accomplished industry guests come together for lively and revealing discussions, which make the festival a key stop in the award season race.
