Los Angeles, CA (October 30, 2019) â?? Leading entertainment company, Arclight Films, has boarded the haunting thriller Let It Snow starring Ivanna Sakhno (The Spy Who Dumped Me, Pacific Rim: Uprising), Alex Hafner (Submergence, The Councellor), and Tinatin Dalakishvili (Abigail), it was announced by the companyâ??s chairman and CEO, Gary Hamilton. Stanislav Kapralov makes his feature film directorial debut from a script he wrote with Omri Rose.

Arclight Films will handle worldwide rights to the feature and will introduce the project to buyers at the upcoming American Film Market where they will also debut market screenings of the film.

The story follows Mia, a free-riding snowboarder, who is separated from her fiancÃ© after sneaking onto a restricted slope. She must not only survive against nature but also a masked snowmobile rider in black whoâ??s out for her blood.

The film is produced by Solar Mediaâ??s Serge Lavrenyuk. Executive producers are Yan Fisher and Roger Corbi of FishCorb Film, which produced Papillon starring Charlie Hunnam and Rami Malek.

â??Stanislav has created a standout thriller that is beautifully shot, with superb performances, and edge-of-your-seat suspense that will captivate audiences,â?• commented Hamilton. â??We look forward to representing this film and having it on offer to buyers at the market.â?•

Arclightâ??s market slate also includes the true-life prison break story, Escape From Pretoria, starring Daniel Radcliffe and Daniel Webber, the sci-fi thriller Possessor starring Andrea Riseborough, Christopher Abbott, Sean Bean, Jennifer Jason Leigh, directed by Brandon Cronenberg, and the action thriller Long Gone Heroes starring Ben Kingsley, Guy Pearce, and Maggie Q.
