47th Telluride Film Festival 2020 Box Office Opens

Description

Posted by Larry Gleeson

Each Labor Day weekend, the tiny mountain village of Telluride, Colorado triples in size. Swells of passionate film enthusiasts flood the town for four days of total cinematic immersion, embarking on a viewing odyssey, blissfully spending entire days in flickering dark rooms. With only an appreciation of celluloid to guide them, these devotees flock to the show, year after year. Why? Blind faith. Telluride doesnâ??t reveal the program until everyone lands in town. Yet the Telluride family trusts that a unique experience will unfold. (Telluridefilmfestival.org)

The Telluride Box Office for Cinephile, Acme and Festival level passes is open NOW. Please note that Patron Passes are sold out.

Please visit the Telluride Film Festival website to order your pass online.

Town of Telluride $1.25 admission Fee for Opening party and Labor Day Picnic included in pass price.

The Cinephile Pass ($390) Directed to the serious Cinephile, this pass follows a special menu of unique & often unrepeated programs, including classic film restorations, silents, Guest Director selections, selected new films and other special programs, plus admission to the Labor Day Picnic.

The Acme Pass ($580) provides exclusive admission to Chuck Jones' Cinema with a sampler program culled from the overall Festival shows. This venue is located in the Mountain Village (accessible by a free, 12-minute gondola ride from town). This pass grants admission to the Labor Day picnic, plus two shows of passholder's choice at the new venue in Town Park.

The Festival Pass ($780) our most popular pass, with unlimited choices of the Festival program provides admission on a first-come, first seated basis to all cinemas, and to all events, including the Opening Night Feed and Labor Day Picnic.

The Patron Pass ($4900) Includes a tax-deductible donation of $2,900
Admission to all events in all sites. Priority seating at all theatres. Guest of honor at the Guest/Patron Brunch on Friday morning. Access to the 'Patron's Preview' of an important new film on Friday afternoon on a first-come, first-serve basis (seating not guaranteed).

The Sponsor Pass
This pass is issued to those who have made a major contribution to support the presentation of the Festival. It provides all Patron Pass benefits listed above, plus additional exclusive benefits and recognition. Contact our Development Director for information at sponsorship(at)telluridefilmfestival.org

If you have any questions on the best way to order your pass, or other general inquiries regarding the Festival, call 510.665.9494 or email at passes@telluridefilmfestival.org. Youâ??ll be glad you did!
