Description

Posted by Larry Gleeson

Meet the Press Film Festival in collaboration with AFI opens the first day of the 2021 AFI FEST. Meet the Press Film Festival highlights topics such as criminal justice reform, climate change, immigration and racial and gender bias. Along with the shorts, the festival also features live discussions with filmmakers, subjects, NBC News correspondents and anchors. These are excellent films with timely topics! Also available today virtually. Director of AFI Festivals, Michael Lumpkin on the Meet The Press Film Festival:

Michael Lumpkin, Director AFI Festivals

â??We are all storytellers, whether as journalists or filmmakers, our job is the same. We share a commitment to bringing important truths to our audience â?? be it in a theater, on television or any other screen..

Julia

Julie Cohenâ??s deliberative documentary Julia on Julia Childs, the 20th Century American pioneer in the kitchen and out is an informative piece â?? well researched. The night belongs to the Jane Campion directed The Power Of the Dog as it makes its Red Carpet Premiere at the TCL Chinese Theatre â?? a â??must-seeâ?• film for AFI FEST 2021.

The Power of the Dog

The Virtual Screenings make their premiere as well with the Meet the Press viewings available and the AFI Conservatory Showcase. Both are HollywoodGlee recommended selections. The short form is often overlooked, yet the stories are succinct, informative, while showcasing fresh voices and pertinent messaging.

Until next time, Iâ??ll see you at the movies!
