Claire (Catherine Frot-Marguerite) is a talented but tightly wound midwife and single mother on the cusp of losing her job as her small maternity clinic canâ€™t compete with the nearby big hospital. BÃ©atrice (Catherine Deneuve), is the estranged, free-spirited but broken-down mistress of Claireâ€™s deceased father looking for redemption. Though polar opposites in almost every way, the two women come to rely on each other to cope with the unusual circumstances that brings them together.

Writer-director Martin Provost began his career as both a stage and screen actor and joined the prestigious Com die Fran aise theatre troupe in the 1980s. After two shorts and first feature Tortilla y Cinema (starring Carmen Maura), his directorial breakthrough was S raphine, about the self-taught artist S raphine de Senlis, which went on to win seven C sar awards including Best Film and Best Actress for Yolande Moreau. Provost has also written several novels including Aime-moi vite, L ger, humain, pardonable, La Rousse P teuse and Bifteck. For THE MIDWIFE, Provost filmed in maternity wards in Belgium capturing real life births.

THE MIDWIFE is scheduled to open in Los Angeles and New York on Friday, July 21st.
