The 2025 TCM Classic Film Festival Presenting GRAND ILLUSIONS

Description

Posted by Larry Gleeson

The 2025 TCM Classic Film Festival will open in Hollywood, California, from April 24â??27. The festivalâ??s theme is:

GRAND ILLUSIONS: FANTASTIC WORLDS ON FILM

The festival will include films such as:

GEORGE STEVENS: A FILMMAKERâ??S JOURNEY (1984)

George Stevens, Jr., produced and narrates this look at his fatherâ??s life and work. It includes interviews with Katharine Hepburn, Fred Astaire, Hermes Pan, Frank Capra, John Huston, Alan J. Pakula and Fred Astaire, and features previously unreleased footage of Stevensâ?? cinematic efforts during World War II; found only after his death, this footage is the only full-color film ever shot during the war. Stevens will be bestowed with this yearâ??s Robert J. Osborne Award, given annually at the TCM Classic Film Festival honoring those who preserve classic film. The award is named after Robert Osborne, a longtime host of Turner Classic Movies.

Car Wash (1976)

A groundbreaking comedy directed by 2025 TCM CLASSIC FILM FESTIVAL HONOREE, Michael Schultz, that follows a day in the lives of a group of employees at a Los Angeles car wash played by a â??whoâ??s whoâ?• cast of notable entertainers including Richard Pryor, George Carlin, Franklyn Ajaye, and The Pointer Sisters.
