

FROM PAGE TO STAGE For the Love of Theatre

Description

Posted by Larry Gleeson

A Documentary about life in the theatre with a colorful cast of characters

For two years the filmmakers followed a talented troop of actors, writer-director and others as they face the challenges to go "From Page to Stage" with the new queer friendly stage comedy Baby Oh Baby written by Phil Scarpaci and T.L. Shannon, directed by Scarpaci, produced by Pattie Kelly. Cast, crew and production staff share their insights and anecdotes about surviving the slings and arrows of participating in the intimate 99 Seat Theatre scene in Los Angeles.

With body clocks ticking and artificial insemination options Baby Oh Baby might even get its world premiere.

"From Page to Stage" sponsored by PBS SoCal, has a run time of approximately 71 minutes and is an official selection of the Newport Beach 2017 Film Festival, premiering Sunday, April 23rd at 2:45 pm, at Triangle Square Cinema, 1870 Harbor Blvd., Costa Mesa, 92627.
