Japan Now: Muses of Japanese Cinema

30th TIFF to Celebrate Four Iconic Actresses:

Sakura ANDO, Yu AOI, Hikari MITSUSHIMA, Aoi MIYAZAKI

The Tokyo International Film Festival (TIFF) is highlighting the work of four iconic actresses in this yearâ??s Japan Now section. This is one of the special programs planned to celebrate its 30th anniversary.

Sakura ANDO, Yu AOI, Hikari MITSUSHIMA and Aoi MIYAZAKI have been chosen as the Muses of Japanese Cinema in honor of the powerful sparks they generate on screen, their collaborations with renowned directors and their increasing international stature.

In addition to the Muses of Japanese Cinema screenings, panel sessions with special guests will also be held.

30th TIFF Visuals by Mika Ninagawa

TIFF is also pleased to unveil striking anniversary visuals by creative director Hiroshi SASAKI and art director Akihiro HAMABE â?? who served as the creative supervisor and chief art director, respectively, of the Tokyo 2020 Olympics performance at the Rio closing ceremony â?? in collaboration with acclaimed photographer and film director Mika NINAGAWA, known for her brightly colored photographs.

TIFF is dedicated to discovering and cultivating new filmmakers from around the world, whose work is highlighted in our Competition section, as well as to presenting internationally acclaimed titles during our 10-day festival.

The 30th TIFF will take place from October 25 â?? November 3, 2017 at Roppongi Hills and other venues in Tokyo.
