BOUNDARIES

Canada â?? 2016 â?? 100 minutes
Director: ChloÃ© Robichaud
NEW VOICES/NEW VISIONS

Quebecois filmmaker ChloÃ©

Robichaud arrives with her anticipated sophomore feature after 2013â??s acclaimed Sarah Prefers to Run. An ambitious feminist political satire, Boundaries follows three women as they negotiate a deal that will allow foreign companies access to natural resources on a tiny Canadian island.

Sat, Jan 7 â?? 1:30 PM â?? Mary Pickford
Director, ChloÃ© Robichaud to attend.
Purchase tickets HERE.

On Wednesday, January 4th some fascinating conversations occurred at Book To Screen, an event that shines a light on the often complex, always invigorating ways in which the written word informs and inspires motion pictures.

NO LIGHT AND NO LAND ANYWHERE

U.S. â?? 2016 â?? 75 minutes
Director: Amber Sealey
WORLD CINEMA NOW

In this raw, sexually graphic and unsettling odyssey, a lost, lonely Londoner, her marriage over, flies to Los Angeles, where she holes up in a seedy motel and searches for the father who abandoned her when she was an infant.
