Hedgehogâ??s Home (JeÅ¾eva kuÄ?a), an animated film by Canadian-Croatian Eva CvijanoviÄ? based on a classic tale by Branko Ä?opiÄ?, will have its world premiere at the 67th Berlin International Film Festival.

The film, which was part of the national curriculum for primary school literature in Croatia, has been included in the Generation Kplus competition programme at the famous festival, which will be held from 9 â?? 19 February 2017.

Hedgehogâ??s Home is about a hedgehog who lives in a lush and lively forest. He is respected and envied by the other animals. However, the hedgehogâ??s unwavering devotion to his home annoys a quartet of insatiable beasts. Together, they march off towards Hedgehogâ??s home and spark a tense and prickly standoff.

CvijanoviÄ?â??s 10-minute animated film is based on Ä?opiÄ?â??s classic story which is a warm and universal tale for young and old that reminds us there truly is no place like home.

The film has been narrated in three languages â?? Croatian (by actor Rade Å erbedÅ¾ija), English (by actor Kenneth Welsh (Twin Peaks), and in French (by actor France Castel).

The film is co-produced by The National Film Board (NFB) of Canada, winner of 12 Oscar Awards, and Croatiaâ??s Bonobostudio.
