The 50th Nashville Film Festival is underway. Executive Director Jason Padgitt welcomed filmgoers, filmmakers and talent alike at the Clementine in Nashville, Tennessee, Thursday night.....and he wasn't alone! Padgitt provided the traditional opening remarks onstage with rising talent, singer-songwriter, Lauren Jenkins.

The Opening Night Film program screened Taika Waititi's much-buzzed-about dark comedy JoJo Rabbit, which delves into the World War II-era perspective of a young German boy who is forced to reconsider the nationalism in which he was raised. The film was preceded by a VIP tent party at the Regal Hollywood ScreenX & RPX Cinema – Nashville, home to this year's screenings and the Creators Conference.
