

Watch: Steven Spielberg, George Lucas, Kobe Bryant & More Salute John Williams

Description

Back in June, movie maestro John Williams took to the Dolby Theatre stage in Hollywood to accept the AFI Life Achievement Award before an audience of his closest friends and collaborators â?? including award presenter Steven Spielberg, who has collaborated with the composer on more than 25 projects.

The nightâ??s starry guests and speakers also included actors Drew Barrymore and Harrison Ford, STAR WARS directors J.J. Abrams and George Lucas and basketball legend Kobe Bryant, who shared a unique anecdote about what Williamsâ?? music means to him.

The televised special, AFI LIFE ACHIEVEMENT AWARD: A TRIBUTE TO JOHN WILLIAMS, was broadcast on TNT in June 2016 and will air again on TCM on September 12 during a night of programming dedicated to Williams.

The September 12 TCM lineup, including presentations of AFI LIFE ACHIEVEMENT AWARD: A TRIBUTE TO JOHN WILLIAMS and the 2011 special AFIâ??S MASTER CLASS: THE ART OF COLLABORATION â?? STEVEN SPIELBERG AND JOHN WILLIAMS, will be as follows:
